Angelo Katsapis - fall / winter 2012

After launching his first collection 4 years ago and keeping the pace ever since, Australian designer Angelo Katsapis introduces his fall / winter 2012.

I have to admit, I didn't know about him before, but discovering this collection convinced me I should tell you all about it !

The label is a symbol of integrity, pure creative expression and a sincere respect for the artform...

My favourite pieces below... And more on Angelokatsapis.com !
