Discover | Angelo Katsapis

I've been watching Australian designer Angelo Katsapis for a while now but it's his SS09 and AW09 collections that have me taking a closer look at his work. Looking at all his collections I see some consistent factors, like his use of sheer and silk to the shapes and textures of each piece. There is also an underlining theme, one that's kind to the female form — and who doesn't love a designer when they keep us in mind when designing? There is also something amazing about structure and volume intertwining like awe-inspired lovers. Below are my picks from both collections but be sure to visit and explore more.

Pieces I adore from the AW09 collection

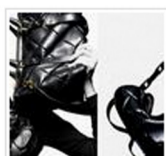

And these pieces from his SS09 collection.
